22nd October, 2021

My humble prayers and salutations to all our friends, and devotees from Germany, Austria, and Switzerland. I feel fresh, strong, healthy with good mood whenever I think about all of you. Your great qualities and hospitality which you shower towards me and you treat me as a family. This is called RELIGION OF TRUTH.

Religion must bring together all people without any difference. It is the symbol of love, and divinity full of compassion. You know very well that love is the religion of the universe. A compassionate one transcends the boundaries of religion and realises undivided absolute reality. Let us sail towards this direction, that is our pilgrimage. Pilgrimage brings peace, harmony, and also prosperity in order to serve other people.

Thank you my dear friends,
