

About Sri Ramani Guruji

Sri Ramani is considered to be the living incarnation of Sri Kaka Bhunjanda Maharishi, the author of a divine palm leaf library. This library contains a very large number of palm leaves that are more than a thousand years old. Sri Ramani Guruji is reading or singing these palm leaves for the sake of all of us.

Sri Ramani is worshipped as a holy man - not only in India.

He is giving daily divine public palm-leaf readings in his ashram and many people are receiving his holy advice. In recent decades many thousands of people, including a lot of prominent public personalities from India, and abroad, have consulted him for guidance and blessings.

- Reinhard Machowinski (Balaji)